INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

CorralRosales is considered one of the most successful law firms with a comprehensive and specialized intellectual property practice in Latin America. We are the leading firm in administrative and contentious matters and the foremost filer of IP rights in Ecuador.

We have decades of experience and the passion to face the challenges brought by intellectual property, especially in a time of change, innovation, and new technologies. Local and multinational companies entrust us with managing their portfolios, preceded by the strategies and solutions we provide to their intellectual property challenges. We are acknowledged for our regional reach in Latin America.

CorralRosales is committed to fighting against counterfeiting and piracy and enforcing intellectual property. Our track record evidences this.

We have an unrivaled team of multidisciplinary professionals exclusively dedicated to intellectual property and regulatory matters. Our legal knowledge is combined with our team's technical background and experience.

We are knowledgeable in diverse industries, including pharma and agrochemicals, food and beverages, retail, distribution and services, and advertising.

We provide intellectual property advice in:

- Business-oriented strategic advice for the protection of intangible assets.
- Support in and registration of intellectual property and breeders' rights.
- Administrative and judicial actions for the defense of intellectual property rights.
- Civil and criminal actions against counterfeiting and piracy.
- Due diligence on intellectual property.
- Distribution, licensing, confidentiality issues, and data protection.
- Andean Community rules and legislation.
- Portfolio Management in LATAM.

REGULATORY

CorralRosales has a unique regulatory practice in Ecuador. Our multidisciplinary and convergent team brings together lawyers and STEM professionals who consolidate legal knowledge and technical expertise to add value for our clients.

Our practice combines public and administrative law with knowledge of the regulations of the most diverse regulated sectors and industries. We are acknowledged for our regional reach in Latin America in the pharmaceutical and agrochemical industry, as well as in food and beverages.

We offer strategic advice to fulfill our clients' objectives in an increasingly competitive, complex, and constantly changing environment. We explore practical solutions, although sophisticated and innovative.

In regulatory matters related to intellectual property, our team stands out for its knowledge and guidance in the pharma and agrochemical industry, food and beverages, distribution and services, advertising, and retail, among other industries.

We provide regulatory advice in:

- Regulatory intelligence.
- Permits, licenses, and authorizations.
- Hosting services, procurement, maintenance, and transfer of product registrations.
- Review and approval of advertising and labeling.
- Crisis management and monitoring of regulatory changes.
- Compliance with technical standards and conformity assessment schemes.
- Administrative and judicial actions.
- Due diligence in regulatory matters.
- Portfolio Management in LATAM.
- Analysis of regulatory/normative impact on different industries.
